(a) No PIC or SCC may permit any person to use, nor may any person use a portable electronic device, including cell-phone, on board an aircraft that may adversely affect the performance of aircraft systems and equipment unless:

- (1) For IFR operations other than commercial air transport, the PIC allows such a device prior to its use; or
- (2) For commercial air transport operations, the Operator makes a determination of acceptable devices and publishes that information in the Operations Manual for the crew members use; and
- (3) The PIC or SCC informs passengers of the permitted use. xxx

COVERAGE/APPLICABILITY:

The following CAAP Rules and Regulations cover the conditional use of transmitting portable electronic device (TPED), music player (MP3) and Global System for Mobile Communication On-Board Aircraft (GSMOBA) on all commercial aircraft operating within the territorial jurisdiction of the Republic of the Philippines.

IMPLEMENTING STANDARDS of PART 8.5.1.26: GUIDELINES/PROCEDURES ON THE USE OF TRANSMITTING PORTABLE ELECTRONIC DEVICE ON BOARD THE AIRCRAFT

(a) The Civil Aviation Authority of the Philippines allows the use of transmitting portable electronic devices specifically laptops and cellular phone including MP3 and GSMOBA, on a conditional basis, on all commercial aircraft operating within or en-route over the territorial jurisdiction of the Republic of the Philippines.

(b) The conditions and limitations are:

1. When the aircraft doors are still open. Use of laptops and cellular phones may be used, internet or short-message-service (SMS) or voice communications, unless the Pilot-In-Command and or Senior Cabin Crew would specifically announce on the public address system (PAS) its prohibition. In no case shall laptop using broadband communications and cellular phone be allowed or used when the aircraft is re-fuelling. In this instance, all transmitting portable electronic devices must be turned-off.
2. When the aircraft doors are closed. Transmitting portable electronics devices, on silent mode, may be used only for short-message-service (SMS) or internet. Voice communications are not allowed except the use of GSMOBA provided its use does not interfere with the orderly conduct of flight. Games on electronic devices on silent mode may be played.
3. The use of MP3's should always be with earphones and not with additional or separate speaker and or amplifiers.
